The Ministry has requested the State Government for early action in the case.

(c) No fresh measures are contemplated as the provisions under the Wildlife Protection Act are considered adequate.

(d) Does not arise.

National Parks affected by Militant Activities

1043. DR. NAUNIHAL SINGH: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether National Parks in India have transformed as New Heaven for terrorists; if so, the details thereof;

(b) whether it is a fact that as many as seven of the Nineteen National Parks under Project Tiger are reported to be seriously affected by militant and naxalite activity; if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is a fact that eleven National Parks are in serious trouble due to terrorist activity; if so, the details thereof; and

(d) what steps Government have taken to clear off the National Parks from militant activity and with what success; the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI KAMAL NATH): (a) to (d) While no Chief Wildlife Wardens have reported any National Park being in serious trouble due to terrorist activities, it is known that in some of the National Parks, Tiger Reserves and Wildlife Sanctuaries terrorists take shelter. The Tiger Reserves of Manas, Dudhawa, Corbett, Nagarjun Sagar and Indravati are the prominent protected areas affected by terrorist's residancy within their boundaries. Details of the other protected areas similarly affected and the extent of its impact on the management of the protected areas are being ascertained from the State Governments and will be laid on the table of the House. It may however, be mentioned that to combat illegal armed activity in protected areas, assistance is being given to State Governments for purchase of arms, better communication equipment and better transport facilities. In order to ensure that people in the forests or on the fringe areas do not fall prey to terrorist's propaganda, scheme for eco-development in and around protected areas is being implemented to enable the people to have employment, develop alternative sources of tree produce, improve cattle-stock, provide fodder etc.
